DRUM ROLL, PLEASE!

We have attendance worth recognizing! Special CONGRATULATIONS to:

- Laura Kahler, Caroline Ring, Sadie Waggenbeek, and Gavin Young for PERFECT attendance since we began in August!
- Jordan Green, Natalie Johnson, Kayden LeBlanc, Ross Nygard, Quinn Lucas-Mullen, Hailey Ring, Peter Seago, and Dylan Young are recognized for missing one full day or less!

And as we approach the mid-point of our school year, over 50% of our students have missed 2 days or less! We're proud of our strong attendance at WCS!

FAMILY LITERACY NIGHT! CELEBRATING CHINESE NEW YEAR!

On Thursday evening, Feb. 2 we will have evening for fun, food and celebration with an hour of sharing stories and activities about Chinese New Year. We will be making Chinese lanterns and dragons and holding our very own dragon parade! Sponsored by our fabulous PTO!

OUR CLASSROOM BUZZ... Presenting KINDERGARTEN and GRADE 1: Children have finished their first unit on "Small Moments" writing, in which children write personal narratives about things that happen in their lives in one small moment.

We celebrated with an amazing publishing party. The children were so proud of their work. Parents, family members and older school buddies shared event.

Thank you to all who participated-- it really made the day special!

I have begun teaching the children about architect and artist Antoni Gaudi. This summer, I traveled to Barcelona, Spain on a Rural Global Teacher's Trust Fellowship, and studied Gaudi's works. Gaudi used nature as an inspiration for his work. He used color and light in his buildings and created colorful mosaics using recycled material. We are collecting bottle caps in our classroom to use for a community project at the end of the year -- a mural depicting a place in nature special to Warwick. Please bring us bottle caps of any shape size or color (kid content friendly, cleaned and dry!) for our project. Allison White, Teacher
