Coordinator Report– David Young 978-729-3224

Our July flooding disaster event has not gotten the federal / FEMA emergency declaration we desire. When and if we do, we can get some reimbursement from the federal government. FEMA stands for Federal Emergency Management Agency. We estimate the cost to “make us whole” from this storm is near $2M. This delay in declaration is not necessarily a bad thing as it means that MEMA (the MA counterpart) is working to ensure every town affected in the state is included. The fact is however, at this point there is no promise of federal taxpayer supported assistance. Recently on the advice of several town administrators, I contacted a FEMA consulting firm and got about an hour and a half of education.

One important thing I learned is that if we get the federal emergency disaster designation, have already made the repairs, and we did not include too much in upgrades, they must pay us 75% of our costs. They will allow 15% “upgrade” without too much objection; so we may for instance increase culvert size.

Important to note this assistance is for “public infrastructure” which in our case is a road. We need to be well organized and organize separate projects to get them funded and to speed reimbursement. On affected road we have projects and sites. Sites have start and stop GPS locations. We separate work completed

Clearly it is easier to keep good records and just do it than the other options that that include project description and scoping work. Larry our Highway Superintendent has been keeping detailed records on emergency expenditures to date to correct this flooding storm damage. Early estimates are that the cost could be $2M to restore us in whole.

In the first 24 hours of the storm event response, we engaged in debris removal and other protective measures like blocking roads and marking dangerous areas. For this sort of work, we only get to count the overtime, and regular hours are not funded. Beginning about day two we have been doing permanent work. We want as much permanent work on our books; work we will not be undoing. MEMA sees this as work we do “after the first 24 hours”.

Recalling that we do not have the Disaster designation yet, we will not want to engage a consultant until we do have the designation. Once that happens the consultant costs are like the permanent road repairs, reimbursable to 75%. With a consultant we will have somebody schooling us to make our claims and plans work because we must submit to a “processing center.” To succeed we need to make the job easy and understandable at the other end.

Even with the designation and funding we must meet 25% of the cost unless the state steps up. We are keeping track of our equipment hours which have an assigned hourly value. That goes in that column. Plus, that portion of payroll spent on flooding repairs / reconstruction from our budget is included.

On other fronts, Warwick Broadband System has 92% of connections meeting our grant contract specifications and needs to get to 96% to collect the final $150k state grant payment. We have until end of calendar year. Neither our neighbor Royalston nor we have heard anything from Charter Communications who won an FCC reverse auction to build a fiber system in both towns. The Selectboard went on record supporting collaborating with Royalston. This could mean working together on a host community agreement. Also, AT&T Wireless has begun construction at the Orange Rd Cell Tower and is not pursuing a new tower on Mt Grace. The Selectboard supports both broadband solutions as vital to the future of our community.

Featuring historical and contemporary writings and photographs—and a snapshot of what the town was like in 1921! The town's human population was 333 (now it's closer to 800), and there were more horses than cars. The Warwick Inn got electricity that year!

Authors and Artists Book Group - Sunday, October 10 at 11 am via Zoom: As a leader to the annual Authors & Artists Fest produced locally from February 26-27, you can join monthly book discussions on the 2nd Sunday at 11 am. First up is Planet Walker: 22 Years of Walking. 17 Years of Silence, by John Francis. Register for any or all of the book discussions at <https://www.nature-culture.net/aa-reading-group-2022>. Everyone is welcome even if you haven't finished the book!

Monthly Short Story Hour - Zora Neale Hurston: Thursday, October 21st @ 7:30 pm at the Library: Hurston died in obscurity in 1960 with all her books out of print; now she is recognized as one of the most important and influential modern American writers. We'll read a few of her short stories displaying her "unique fusion of folk traditions and literary modernism—comic, ironic, and soaringly poetic." Be a reader—or come just to listen.

Storyteller John Porcino - Sat Oct 30th at 1 pm @ Library: Join renowned storyteller/musician John Porcino as he presents a Halloween program for all ages entitled "Not Too Scary Stories". He will spin a handful of his most beloved seasonal tales and song for families. Mix 2 gallons of spooktacular seasonal stories, 1 quart of sing along songs. Spice it up with some wonderful and strange musical instruments. Add heaps of laughter and a pinch of not too scary fun. Then, serve it up with a pack of kids, the youngest cuddled safe in their parents lap and you have a recipe for some full baked Halloween fun. To be followed by a short set of scarier tales for the older children and parents. This program is supported in part by a grant from the Warwick Cultural Council, a local agency which is supported by the Mass Cultural Council, a state agency.

Climate Preparedness book discussion (Pt 2) - Date to be determined: Warwick Library is participating in Climate Preparedness Week, organized by Communities Responding to Extreme Weather (CREW). Libraries and others across the state are hosting discussions of How to Prepare for Climate Change: A Practical Guide to Surviving the Chaos (2021) by David Pogue. The October discussion will review book chapters that were not included in the September gathering.

Finding Winnie: Before Winnie-the-Pooh, there was a real bear named Winnie—short for Winnipeg! In 1914 a Canadian veterinarian on his way to tend horses in WW1 rescued a baby bear and named her after his hometown. In England she spent the war safely at the London Zoo, where a boy—a real boy—named Christopher Robin also became friends with her. Check out this wonderful and beautifully illustrated book at the Library, which includes real-life photos of Winnie and her friends.

Wanted - Book reviewers: If you'd like to submit a brief review of a book you've recently read from the Library, please let me know.

Best - Ivan

One of the first places I went out to eat with my Army roommate after things started opening up was Maine Fish Market Restaurant in East Windsor, CT. Exit 45 off Route 91 takes about 1 hour and 15 minutes from Warwick. When you exit, take a right and it's only about ½ mile down the road. You can't miss it.

When I saw it, I remembered I had been there many years ago with some friends from Springfield and we loved it then, and I loved it now. The freshest seafood and cooked to perfection. Donna ordered clam chowder and I would have too, but that fills me up too much to enjoy my fried sea scallops! But I did taste it and it was delicious. My scallops were excellent, served with fries and coleslaw.

Masks were required until you were seated and there was quite a crowd for an early afternoon lunch. The prices are relatively reasonable based on the going prices of seafood. My scallops were $18, the clam chowder was $4.99 for a cup and I remember Donna having the Fried Haddock at $15.99. The prices increase at the dinner hours to $17.99 for Haddock and $22.99 for Sea Scallops. A larger serving?

Definitely recommend this if you want to take a little ride south, not hard to find and the food is excellent. Bon Appetite.

Dear Friends,

“And Jesus says, everyone will be salted with fire. Everyone. In the same way that virtually all food contains some level of salt within it, human beings are going to go through some things. We are seasoned by the circumstances and situations of our lives. “Salt is good.” Being salted is a good thing that can occur within a trying thing. Queen Esther was salted in confronting her husband the king as she risked her privilege and her safety for the good of her people. That salt was good. Moses was salted in the wilderness as he led a people with a propensity for complaint. God provided additional leaders to share the burden. That salt was good. James recounts Elijah’s persistent prayers for rain that took 42 months to be answered in the affirmative. Nevertheless, he persisted. That salt was good.”

Rev Dr Cheryl A Lindsey

It is unsettling, to say the least, to feel as though something is out of balance and headed in the wrong direction; especially now. We live in a culture that is addicted to instant everything; instant response, instant resolution to any sort of discomfort or unknowing. Any unresolved problem or question can be “googled” and we can find the answer we want. We don’t even have to be conscious of what answers we want, if we “google it” an answer that feels good to us will pop up that lets us resolve our discomfort and feel righteously indignant about our position.

The quote above is in reference to a passage in the Gospel of Mark in which Jesus’ disciples have encountered someone outside their circle who is “casting out demons in your name” and they ask if they should stop him. Jesus answers that if he is doing “good” don’t stand in the way of the good. Then he goes on to the statement about salt being good, unless it has lost its “saltiness. “Salt is good; but if salt has lost its saltiness, how can you season it? Have salt in yourselves and be at peace with one another.”

In Jesus’ day, salt was a very valuable resource. It did not just flavor food, it preserved food and made it possible to transport and share food, enabling the expansion of communities. If “salt” wasn’t salty enough it would do neither well and could even be dangerous to those who used it or ate the food that was possibly contaminated. Paul, in his letters to the early church expressed a similar idea by saying “test the Spirits”; don’t just assume, because it looks attractive or tastes appealing, that it is good for you. Step back and take a longer view.

In our day, we just don’t seem to have time to “test the Spirits”. Are vaccines the best way to end the Covid pandemic or are treatments like Ivermectin the way? Are we a racist society or not? Are the poor poor because of structural barriers or are they just lazy? Is climate change human caused or just a natural occurrence? You’re either for us or against us. Which is right and which is wrong? Choose now and don’t waver in your stance. God forbid someone should change their opinion as new information becomes available. Stand firm; flip-flop is the death knell of many a decision maker. And yet rarely is the choice “either/or”, most often it is a combination of elements and getting the balance right oftentimes means adjusting the recipe.

Granted, sometimes a decision needs to be made quickly, but holding open the possibility of further truth yet to be revealed is not a sign of weakness. Admitting a mistake and learning from it is a valid way of growing. Denying a mistake and refusing to alter our mindset leads to making the same mistake time after time. Mistakes are the “salt” of life. Living in abject denial can become toxic, to ourselves and those around us.

We are all in this together. Together we can address issues too big for individuals alone, if we are willing to be “salted” in community.

In hopeful faith, Dan

Warwick School Renewal News - September 2021

Tom Wyatt, Warwick Education Committee

What's happening at the Warwick Community School (WCS):

The Warwick Arts Council tent has been setup for use for a variety of programs.

“Learn & Play Group” for families with young children (birth - age 5). has begun.

This free play group meets Wednesday mornings at 10am and is outdoors for now. The program is designed with stories, activities, and time for adults to meet & chat.

Pre-registration is required, contact Deb Wood at 413-239-0830 (call or text), Coordinator of PVRSD Coordinated Family & Community Engagement. Funded by a grant from the MA Department of Early Education and Care. Early childhood is a key part of the Warwick Education Committee's long-range education plan. There is a classroom set up for early childhood activities. Connecting families with the school builds community and fosters children's development.

The Warwick Community Home School Co-Op has begun a new school year with an art club, nature/adventure club, library use. There are 2-3 programs per week led by volunteers Janice Starmer, Tracey Kirley, Clare Green, coordinated by Amber Holloway.

After-school programs, starting in October are in the planning stage. These would explore art, theater, and nature/adventure and be supported by the Warwick Recreation Committee. They would be for Warwick children who are attending school in Northfield and occurring once the bus arrives back in town. If you are interested, please contact Janice Starmer at 978-544-8968 or at hoothill@valinet.com

Tuition and transition agreements between Pioneer Valley Regional School District (PVRSD) and Warwick are in the final stages of completion. The tuition agreement guarantees that Pioneer is the designated school for Warwick students grade 7-12 - all those who choose to attend will be accepted. The transition agreement clarifies how Warwick will exit PVRSD and meet continue its percent of long-term obligations.

The Education Committee has submitted the draft budget section of the town's long-range educational plan to the Department of Elementary & Secondary Education Two remaining sections are being drafted; ongoing contact with DESE continues.

Prep work for the Pavilion/Amphitheater and Outdoor Classroom at the Warwick Community School has begun! Thanks to Don & Jamie Matthews, a few play structures were relocated, and the ground leveled to make room for the foundation. The Pavilion fund appeal, begun in December, has already raised over $9000! Many thanks to the numerous Warwick residents and supporters from near and far! Interested in supporting the pavilion project? Make checks payable to: Town of Warwick – Pavilion Please mail to: Town of Warwick, Pavilion Project 41 Winchester Rd, Warwick, MA 01378.

Moore's Pond Beach Committee

As we near the end of September, the water is cooling down; the number of swimmers is dwindling; and the last water test of the season is in the books. It's been a good year for the beach: We saw the installation of the traprock path and a new picnic table both for allowing roll-in access, improvements inspired by Diane Ellis, in memory of Gordon. The beach was cleaned and raked daily (thanks to MPBC members Patty Bellemare and Jean Haskell). The only hiccup was the flood of '21, which forced closure of beach for a week, out of fear of both surface-water runoff contamination and strong currents as millions of gallons of water swept over the nearby dam. All water tests, even the one a few days after the flood, passed with flying colors.

The Seventh Moore's Pond Corregatta took place Sunday afternoon as the closing event of Old Home Days. Entries were few this year, three in the youth division and two in the adult division, but the crowd of two hundred, spread over the Town Beach, cottages across the pond, and boats, cheered on the contestants. Co-pilots Hailey Ring and Ethan Fisher in the President's Kitchen came in first in the youth division; Emile Marti paddled Jasper to second place; and third place went to Benjamin Walker in the Eager Beaver. The adult race was also won by the President's Kitchen, under the trusty paddles of Jason Ring and daughter Hailey. Second place went to Dan Farley in the Eager Beaver, which capsized immediately, but was paddled in its sunken state over the 100-yard course to the finish line, to the delight and laughter of the audience, which selected Eager Beaver for the "Sinker Award" (most entertaining shipwreck), and President's Kitchen for "Fan Favorite." The fine prizes (including a beautiful painting-on-slate as first prize and the presciently appropriate mask and snorkel won by the sunken Eager Beaver) were donated by Barbara and Cary Noel and MPBC member Kate Ring. Thanks also to MPBC members Kathy and Matt Connelly, who served as judges; Gary Bellemare, who placed and retrieved the buoy; Jean H., Patty B., and Linda Strusa who staffed the registration and voting; and Claire Michaels who served as emcee.
