A D M I N I S T R A T I V E   D E T A I L S

All articles, ads and correspondence may be emailed to andrea@woods4.com (or call 544-6844 eves.) or left at the Library book/drop-box or the envelope just outside the kitchen on the first floor of the Metcalf Chapel by the 20th of the month before the article will run. Please note the following changes to WCN publication rules: In order to save paper and postage (which has risen in cost dramatically over the past couple of years), we are no longer accepting FULL PAGE inserts at all for commercial ads, and are asking every organization in Town to keep their event flyers to 1/2 page or less. If a full page event for news flyer is desired, the organization may print the flyer themselves for insertion (call Nancy Hickler at the Library for the number of copies required—544-7866) or email Andrea Woods, editor, if the information cannot be fit to 1/2 page and a waiver is desired. ADVERTISING NOTE: All Advertisements should now be sent to Beth Gilgun at bethgilgun@msn.com. You may also call her to make arrangements to drop off a hard copy business card. Her number is 544-3464. Business card size ads are $7/month or $70/year or a double size business card size ad may be requested for $15/mo. All material may be edited for length, ink intensiveness, or content and may not be anonymous. Some logs and minutes provided may only be available on the Warwick Website at www.warwickma.org due to space limitations.

The Warwick Board of Assessors has completed the update of all property values for Fiscal Year 2016.

The values are a measure of past sales and reflect proposed values as of January 1, 2015. As a result of this new assessment, overall values in the town have been reduced by approximately 5% from Fiscal Year 2015. The new values will be available at Town Hall, the Library and on www.warwickma.org once we have received Certification from the Department of Revenue. The time to see your new value and ask any questions is during this public disclosure period rather than waiting for your actual tax bill and asking for an abatement. There will be a Legal Notice in the Athol Daily News, a posting on the Warwick L and on the website letting you know the week they will be available. It is likely that they will be available by the time you are reading this due to deadlines for the newsletter.

DON'T MISS THIS - ONE DAY ONLY, CATCH A PEEK OF HISTORY!

Digging up the past. Did you know there have been 63 owners of the Warwick Inn? Thanks to Beth Gilgun we have a list of all the owners and the dates of purchase. What was Lemuel Wheelock thinking when he bought and sold it the same day?

Come look at the Hotel Register from 1898. When they signed their name, listed their horses and added "and Lady" did they mean their wife? (HmMMM)

Hundreds of photos chronicling the "befores" and "afters" (of the building and of our neighbors) during the last 30 years. Also music of live performances that we were so lucky to enjoy in the Tavern on Friday Nights.

On Saturday the 22nd a Moore's Pond Beach Table will be set up on the common.

The beach has been busy this summer. Some have asked about the water quality. Our weekly tester states it is one of the cleanest around. Tests have shown no water quality problems for the last eleven tests during May, June and July to present.

Enjoy the beach for the rest of the summer.

-David Shepardson, Beach Committee Chair

THE GREEN

CORNER

The 2015-16 edition of the local food guide produced by North Quabbin Energy is now available.

You can find it at local stores, libraries, retail farmstands, and related venues.

The digital version is available here:

<http://northquabbinenergy.org/wordpress/wp-content/uploads/2015/06/nq-food-brochure-final1.pdf>

This updated and expanded version of the brochure was funded in part by grants from the cultural councils of Athol, New Salem, Orange, Petersham, Phillipston, Royalston, and Warwick. These local agencies are supported by the Massachusetts Cultural Council, a state agency. Additional funding was provided by Mass Humanities, which receives support from the Massachusetts Cultural Council and is an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities. We are very grateful for this support, which has allowed us to include more resources and give a broader picture of what's happening in the area's local food scene.

In addition to the nine North Quabbin towns, this edition of the guide also includes information about the neighboring towns of Barre and Hardwick. These two additional towns are part of the "Farm Values: Civic Agriculture at the Crossroads" project of Mount Grace Land Conservation Trust, which will focus on the past and present of small-scale agriculture in our area (see farmvalues.net for more).

Inside the brochure, you'll find information about farms and farmstands, festivals and markets, and resources for education, preservation, advocacy, seed-saving, and more.

There's also contact info for the Agricultural Commissions and community gardens in the towns that have them.

There's lots going on in our local food scene, and we hope you'll check it out!

Janice Kurkoski, for North Quabbin Energy

TRINITARIAN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH of WARWICK

AUGUST 2015

Dear Friends,

This summer, I had the privilege of representing the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ as an elected voting delegate to the national UCC General Synod in Cleveland OH. This is a biennial event that draws representatives from across the country and even some international participants to discuss and vote on resolutions ranging from church structure to stances on social issues of the day. The Synod structure is much like any other legislative body with workshops, committees, debates and votes taken. What is supposed to set it apart from a secular legislative body is that the resolutions and arguments are to be underpinned by a theological foundation. And, to a large degree, faith/belief did shape much of the debate. But we humans have an amazing capacity to interpret the same faith documents in very different ways.

Another element that distinguishes this gathering is that the UCC sets standards of representation that urges (The UCC uses “soft” verbs like urges, encourages, advises, suggests rather than “hard” verbs like demands, requires, orders) each Conference to strive for great diversity in its representatives. So the 760 voting representatives were a very diverse group with a fairly equal number of clergy and lay delegates; male and female (gay, straight, transgender), young and old, a wide spectrum of race and ethnicity. This diversity was reflected in the discussions and even the prayers and worship we shared.

In addition to the voting delegates there were well over 2,000 national staff, international presenters and observers, speakers, musicians, and non-voting church groups and members. The discussions in and outside the plenary sessions were, for the most part, respectful even when they were contentious. My personal opinions and beliefs were variously supported and challenged, stretched and pulled and ultimately, I believe, enlarged and strengthened.

Two rather serendipitous events were celebrated. The Synod officially opened on Friday; right after the US Supreme Court handed down its ruling on Same Gender Marriage. There was a great deal of celebration, but an acknowledgement that much more work needed to be done to move beyond the vitriol and hate that still surrounds this issue.

The other recent event that was cited as historical was that the South Dakota Conference had legally returned land to the Lakota Sioux tribe; land that had been taken from them in the late 1800’s. It was a small but well-meant gesture of respect and reparation.

In such a diverse group, the issue of white, male privilege could not be avoided and it was a part of much of the discussion/debate; from the overt racism of the Columbia, SC murders to the subtleties of latent racism in professional sports team names and mascots to the media’s use of words like “rioter” and “terrorist” for people of color and “deviant” and “murderer” for white suspects. The history and context out of which public symbols arise, from flags to names, can’t be ignored if they perpetuate a demeaning and stigmatizing stereo type of a specific segment of society. It became clear to me that language does mean something and should be used with compassion and great caution.

In that same vein, the election of an older, straight, white male to be the new Minister and President of the national UCC was raised as both a symbolic and actual concern. Is a church, which professes the extravagant love of God for the whole of creation and the ministry of Jesus to the marginalized and oppressed of society, still unable to find within itself leadership from those very people it is reaching out to? There was a lot of discussion around this issue and many voices were heard from all segments of the church that said at this time, this man, Reverend Dr John Dorhauer, is a person of great faith, committed to working to widen the churches empowerment of others and is a step in that direction. As John Robinson, pastor to the Pilgrim Church said as they left for America “...more truth and light is yet to break forth from (God’s) holy word.”

In faith, Dan

THE TRINITARIAN CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH OF WARWICK DECLARES ITSELF TO BE AN OPEN AND AFFIRMING CONGREGATION

On Sunday, July 19 the congregation voted to adopt the following "Open and Affirming Covenant";

We, the members of the Trinitarian Congregational Church of Warwick, Massachusetts, are a faith community striving to follow the teachings of Jesus with God's help and grace. We covenant to welcome and support all people without regard to race, ethnicity, ability or disability, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, age, political opinion, and marital or economic status. By declaring that we are open and affirming of all people, we seek to convey that total participation in our church's life and mission is available to everyone.

Rationale: I give you a new commandment, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, you should love one another. By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another. (John 13: 34-35)

The congregation also voted to:

Donate $5,000 to the Firemen's' Assoc. for the safety building.

Purchase 6 new tables for the Town Hall.

RESTAURANT REVIEW

The Country Store in Petersham
 2 North Main Street
 Petersham, MA
 978-724-000
www.petershamcountrystore.com
 Hours Mon-Sat 8 AM to 7 PM
           Sunday 9 AM to 7 PM
 Café is open till 3 PM every day

Since I haven't been to the Country Store in Petersham for years and not since they reopened, I selected that as a place for one of my many birthday lunches. What a pleasant surprise. Their café is open till 3 PM each day and they have a nice selection of soups, salads and sandwiches. You can build your own sandwich by selecting your bread, meat, cheese, veggies, and condiment. The special soup that day was corn chowder and it was delicious. I had that with a turkey sandwich that I built and it too was delicious.

They have small tables scattered throughout the back of the store and you can browse the handmade crafts which are on shelves in the back. The front of the store contains the grocery items; anything from canned goods, wines, dairy and breads, many are locally made. They have a lot of natural and gluten free products. I also noticed a meat case where "coming soon" is going to be a deli counter where you can buy deli meats which they will cook themselves.

They also had frozen yogurt which I didn't have room for after my chowder and sandwich so may have to go back soon and check that out. They also serve breakfast of muffins, breakfast sandwiches and burritos. I highly recommend a short ride to Petersham for a great breakfast or lunch at a reasonable price.

Calling Warwick Artists

It's Coming!

The Art Show is just around the corner!

Get out your easel, dust off that camera, find that quilt...

The Warwick Arts Council wants to put your work on display in the Town Hall at our 25th Annual Art Show on Columbus Day weekend in October (10/9/15-10/11/15). Greater Warwick area artists of all ages and experience levels are encouraged to complete those creative projects this summer. If you create it, we'll show it off – whether it's fiber art, ceramics, collage, puppetry, wood carving, furniture, monotypes, jewelry, drawings, sculpture, photography, painting or something different. So put this notice on your bulletin board or refrigerator and get cracking! Details will appear in the September newsletter about joining our community arts weekend that will include an artist reception. *Questions?
