Warwick Cultural Council 2026 Grant Awards

Our town was allocated $5,700 for Cultural Council grants for the coming year. We received applications for $23,140 worth of grants. We awarded a variety of grants, some that will take place in various venues in Warwick and some that will take place in our wider community. Harvest stories with Davis Bates and stories about the Blues with Barrett Anderson will take place in Warwick. Nature and art classes at the Athol Bird & Nature Club, Open Studio time at the Launch Space at OIC in Orange, dancing at Inside/Out Dance Company in Orange, Craft Workshops for Warwick teens and Shell Hines's workshop, Images of Aging, were all supported with our grant funds. Local festivals and parades such as the Nolumbeka Festival in Turners Falls, Starry Starry Night in Orange and the Franklin County Pride Parade in Greenfield were all awarded some of our grant funds. Artist-in-residence programs and a singing and songwriting residency were supported at the Warwick Community School. We supported the ongoing publication of Uniquely Quabbin Magazine and will help the Warwick Firefighters purchase a larger unit for frying French fries at our annual Old Home Days celebration. Many thanks to all who submitted applications. We look forward to a culturally rich year ahead in Warwick and in our wider community.

Riding Warwick Roads in the WCS Electric Bus

What a delightful Green Corner assignment... On a chilly fall morning, I was welcomed into Lois Wells' beautiful Warwick home followed by her two friendly dogs, Zelia and Zion. The WBEC was eager to learn how things have been going with the new 2024 Kia EV9 and Lois, our bus driver, had kindly agreed to tell the story.

With pen and paper ready, I sat at the kitchen table enjoying home-made sourdough toast as Lois talked about the blue Kia. Just the previous day, she had to drive the bus to Belchertown for inspection. As a former coach and teacher, Lois has lots of experience with driving vans, although this one requires a 7-D (up to 10 passengers) license which required her to jump through several additional hoops. She helped with the steps required to get the bus road-ready for students including the signage, child safety alarm system, and fire extinguisher. She now has a year's worth of experience with this E-bus and told me what it's like to travel the Warwick roads with her five students.

Lois is responsible for keeping the bus charged using the WCS charging station. The bus runs for approximately 270 miles per charge, which works out to roughly one charge a week for the morning and afternoon bus routes five days a week.

The bus feels safe and, yes, it is fun to drive. It has good, smooth pickup and doesn't jar her five passengers. Brake usage is minimized, as the vehicle slows as soon as the foot is off the accelerator. Loading in and out is easy with doors on both sides. Some of the students know that they're riding in a special vehicle, and the blue bus is well known along its regular routes! It is safer for younger students with seat belts and ability to accommodate boosters and car seats. The dash has indicator lights to alert the driver if a seatbelt is unfastened and which seat has been vacated. In addition, the bus can accommodate more readily a young student who uses a wheelchair. Lois describes a more personal space in which to transport the students, and she's also getting to know the parents.

The only drawbacks Lois mentioned were increased wear and tear on the tires due to the vehicle's weight of approximately 7000 pounds, and that it's not equipped with stop signs that extend away from the bus for oncoming traffic; it's not as recognizable as a school bus, and she's had vehicles fail to stop. The bus always starts, although sometimes the door handles will freeze from excess moisture in the colder weather.

The financial side to this E-bus is also positive. Compared to each contracted (regular) bus costing $90,000 per year for both the elementary and secondary routes, costs associated with the E-bus are under $20k; therefore, with a purchase price of $60k it offers an amazing one-year payback! Electricity costs to recharge the batteries on-site are under $300/year and trips out of town to "refuel" are unnecessary. Flexibility for field trips and allowing the school to start and end the day with all students arriving and leaving close to the same times are additional benefits. It's no wonder that WCS is considering a 12- or 15-passenger electric bus through grant funds.

Special thanks to E-bus driver Lois Wells for giving us her time for this interview, as well as for her first-hand knowledge and expertise.

~ Mary Humphries for the WBEC

Coordinator for January 2026 Newsletter - David Young

I want to take a moment to highlight the role of the Warwick Education Foundation, Inc. in supporting educational opportunities by raising money for Warwick School District in ways over and above your generous taxpayer's support. The Foundation is a separate nonprofit and tax-exempt organization from the town and the town's school department. It may, on behalf of the mission accept tax-deductible gifts and bequests to benefit our community's educational programs, projects, and students without looking like a pay to play scheme. This matters very much at the state and local level.

If you are revising your will or considering a planned gift, please keep the Warwick Education Foundation in mind. It is a way to make a meaningful difference in our community, and you will make a difference at whatever level you are able to support us. Feel free to contact me for basic information on how to direct such a gift to the Foundation. If you want to write a check their mailing address is c/o Town Hall 12 Athol Rd 01378.

The Town currently has several openings for volunteers on board and committees. We are seeking applicants for part-time positions with the Town. We have open seats on the Personnel Committee, which plays a key role in helping the Town develop and review personnel policies and practices and has a role as step three of four in the grievance process. We would benefit from residents who are thoughtful, fair-minded, and willing to do some homework between meetings. We need two alternate members for the Zoning Board of Appeals (ZBA). Alternates are essential to keeping the ZBA work on track when regular members are unavailable, and this is an effective way to learn about land use, zoning, and local decision-making and process.

The Selectboard is assembling a citizen visioning committee to help chart a transition in the Town Coordinator role. As many know, I retired in July and was rehired on a month-to-month basis. I am now moving toward fewer hours and focus on special projects rather than day-to-day administration. The board hired Diana Noble to carry some of the workload. I plan to focus on special projects that are expected to include Warwick Broadband Service (WBS), work related to the Meeting House, long-range capital planning, and staying involved with town buildings and infrastructure. Selectboard are looking for residents who are interested in helping think through how best to structure and staff Town administration going forward, including what skills and hours the community will need in its next Town Coordinator.

If you have an interest in serving on the Personnel Committee, as a ZBA alternate, on the Town Coordinator visioning committee please reach out to me or a Selectboard member so we can talk about your interests and answer any questions. Warwick depends on its volunteer-engaged residents, and this is a meaningful way to contribute to our town's future.

The Town's digital equity and technology support program continues to expand. Weekly in-person assistance is offered every Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to noon, providing residents with help using phones, computers, email, online services, and other every day or not so ordinary technology needs. To make this support available to more people, additional hours are being added on Tuesdays following the senior lunch program through 6:00 p.m. These sessions are informal and open to all residents, whether they need one-on-one assistance or simply want to stop by, spend time with neighbors, and build comfort and confidence with technology in a welcoming setting.
